

COVID-19 Related Offenses and Fines for Rheinland-Pfalz

| Offense | Fine |
|---|--------------|
| Failure to maintain at least 1.5 meters of physical distancing wherever possible | 100€ |
| Being present in a public space with more than 2 people who do not live in the same household ¹ | 200€ |
| Being present in a public space with more than 10 people who do not live in the same household ² | 1000€ |
| Attending meetings in clubs, sports and leisure facilities, educational institutions, coach tours, or other public or private events with 3–10 attendees | 200€ |
| Attending meetings in clubs, sports and leisure facilities, educational institutions, coach tours, or other public or private events with 11 or more attendees | 1000€ |
| Hosting/organizing meetings in clubs, sports and leisure facilities, educational institutions, or other public or private events with 3–10 attendees | 1000€ |
| Hosting/organizing meetings in clubs, sports and leisure facilities, educational institutions, or other public or private events with 11 or more attendees | 4000€ |
| Failure to maintain necessary hygienic requirements where individuals must work in close contact | 1000€ |
| Travel from an international risk area ³ to or through Rheinland-Pfalz, except for commutes to the place of employment or residence. | 200€ |
| Any above offenses deemed minor in nature may be reduced to a warning | 55€ |

The above fines are fines for first offenses. Fines for additional or intentional offenses may be doubled.

¹ You may be in public with all the members of your household, but you may be in public with only one person who does not live you with you.

² You may be in public with all the members of your household, but you may be in public with only one person who does not live you with you.

³ As of 31 March 2020, international risk areas are: Austria, Egypt, Iran, Italy, France, South Korea (Daegu and Gyeongsangbuk-do Province), Spain, Switzerland (Tessin, Waadt, and Geneva Cantons), and the United States (California, Washington, New York, and New Jersey).